

Call for Papers North East Economic Review

After the successful publication of volume 2 issue no. 1 in May ,2026, papers are invited from the members of NEEA for the next issue of North East Economic Review volume 2 issue 2 due for publication in January 2026. NEER has four sections . The first section deals with north east specific issues and the second section deals with issues beyond the north east. While the third section has review of work done so far on any north east specific issue, the fourth will have review of books dealing with north east related issues. The details of paper submission are available in NEEA website. Papers may be emailed to the Chairman of the editorial board (ebksingh@gmail.com) with a copy to Executive editor (secretaryneea@gmail.com) latest by November 30, 2026. Contributors are requested to submit the result` of similarity checks.
